It enjoys a wonderful semi-rural setting close to Clevedon Comprehensive School, Clevedon Golf Club, and a convenient bus stop.

The property is approached via a brick-paved driveway leading to a lovely frontage with an adjacent lawn, all enclosed by mature hedging, creating an attractive and private first impression and benefits from solar panels that provide a steady annual income. A welcoming entrance hall gives access to a cloakroom and leads through to a modern kitchen, well fitted with excellent storage and worktop space. Externally, the property truly excels, with beautiful, mature gardens featuring a patio BBQ area, sweeping lawns, mature hedges, trees, and well-stocked flowerbeds, all creating a private and peaceful outdoor environment with views over to the nearby woodlands. An enclosed side passage provides convenient external access from front to rear and leads directly into the integral single garage.
