A unique three double bedroom, three bathroom, luxury loft-style apartment in a converted piano factory with private roof terrace and access to a VIP Club Lounge with pool.

This unique property is located in the new Chappell Lofts development, a former Victorian piano factory whose clients included Beethoven and Strauss, now restored and tastefully converted into 10 stunning loft-style apartments.

Inspired by the building's past, the authentic interior evokes Victorian grandeur whilst luxurious appointments including high-specification open-plan industrial kitchens by the Italian brand Scavolini, parquet flooring and exposed brickwork bring this 1860s site well into the modern era.

Belmont Street, in the heart of Chalk Farm and Camden, is ideally situated for the famous Stables Market, local shops, bars, restaurants and transport links.
