GENERAL REMARKS AND LOCATION

For peace and tranquility without isolation Higher Bissoe Farm is the perfect location. Now wholly residential it is one of a group of dwellings forming the original farm including associated cottages but all with significant independence and privacy from its neighbour. The subject property was formerly the farmhouse and has been the cherished family home for the current vendors for many years. During this time a plethora of trees have been planted both within and around the perimeter of the land so that the overall setting is overwhelmingly secluded and sheltered.

Bissoe is a small scattered community of cottages and farms situated between the busy centres of Truro, Falmouth Redruth and just over 2 miles to the west of Carnon Downs village which has an excellent local store.. Higher Bissoe Farm is actually closest to the village of Perranwell and here there is a good local primary school and even a railway station providing access to Truro and Falmouth.

One of the main attractions in Bissoe is the Bissoe Trail, a popular cycling and walking route that runs from Devoran to Portreath. The trail follows the route of an old railway line and offers stunning views of the surrounding countryside. Along the way, visitors can stop at various cafes and pubs to enjoy a bite to eat or a refreshing drink.

In addition to the Bissoe Trail, the village is also home to a number of historic landmarks and attractions. These include the Bissoe Bridge, a Grade II listed structure that dates back to the 18th century, and the nearby Carnon Viaduct, which spans the Carnon River and offers breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside.

The farmhouse is believed to have been built in the mid-1900's with a modest single storey extension added in recent years. It is predominantly stone built with brick window arches and replacement double glazing perfectly enhancing the age of the dwelling. Internally there are plenty of character features including working window shutters, period fireplace surrounds and a charming turning staircase with original coloured glass staircase window. Over the years the house has been updated and improved, there is oil-fired central heating, a fitted kitchen, wood-burning stoves and an ensuite shower room to the main bedroom. Internal viewing is essential.

THE DWELLING

The farmhouse is a traditional building believed to have been built in the mid-1800's with a modest single storey extension added in recent years. It is predominantly stone built under a hipped slated roof and featuring brick window arches and replacement double glazing perfectly enhancing and in sympathy with the age of the dwelling. Internally there are plenty of character features including working window shutters, panelled doors, period fireplace surrounds and a charming turning staircase with original coloured glass staircase window. Over the years the house has been updated and improved, there is oil-fired central heating, a fitted kitchen, wood-burning stoves and an ensuite shower room to the main bedroom. Internal viewing is essential.

DIRECTIONS

The property can be accessed by a variety of routes but most easily from the village of Perranwell. From the centre of Perranwell take the northern route up Greenwith Hill (crossing straight over Greenwith Lane after a short distance) and continue for about a mile out of the village. At the first cross-roads continue straight ahead (do not go down Grenna Lane) but after a few yards take the next right hand turning signposted Bissoe. Near the bottom of the hill watch out for the drive on the right hand side signposted "Higher Bissoe Farm" and Higher Bissoe Barn". The access into Higher Bissoe Farm is the first left hand drive at the top of the lane.
