Set in the heart of the Mid Devon village of Wembworthy, 10 The Village is a really well balanced home offering more space than you might expect, along with some lovely views over the surrounding countryside.

Wembworthy is a small and peaceful village centred around its church and village hall, with a strong sense of community. It's well placed too, with Winkleigh and Chulmleigh nearby for day to day needs, while the A377 and rail links at Eggesford make it accessible for travel further afield.

The house itself offers generous and flexible accommodation over two floors. The living room sits to the front and has a cosy feel, while the kitchen has been updated and connects through to the dining/breakfast room, creating a more sociable space for everyday living.

To the rear, a conservatory adds another layer of usable space and enjoys the outlook over the garden.

Upstairs, there are three genuine double bedrooms, along with a useful additional room which works well as a study or nursery. The family bathroom has been modernised and is well finished, with both bath and separate shower. There is also a large loft space.

The property benefits from mains gas central heating with a recently installed boiler, uPVC double glazing and good levels of insulation, making it a comfortable home to run.

Outside, the rear garden is enclosed and designed to be easy to maintain, with patio areas and planted borders. There is a garage with power and light, along with off-road parking to the side.

Overall, this is a great village home offering plenty of space, flexibility and a peaceful setting, all within a well connected part of Mid Devon.
