A truly remarkable coastal residence, ideally positioned in the heart of Mudeford, enjoying wonderful views across Christchurch Harbour towards Hengistbury Head. Offering approximately 2,008 sq ft of beautifully presented accommodation, this architecturally striking home has been designed by ARC, with meticulous attention to detail and a superb level of finish throughout. Located just moments from the water's edge, the property is within easy reach of Christchurch Quay, blue flag beaches, the Nature Reserve and a selection of excellent pubs and restaurants. At the heart of the home is a fabulous open-plan kitchen and living space, featuring a high-end appliance package, quartz worktops and herringbone Karndean flooring. Large bi-fold doors open onto the rear garden, creating a wonderful sense of flow between the living and outdoor spaces. A separate lounge enjoys floor-to-ceiling glazing, complemented by an impressive walnut staircase and solid internal doors. The vaulted master bedroom suite is a particular feature, offering beautiful Harbour views, a bespoke Hallmark dressing room, designer en-suite and generous private balcony with frameless glazing. There are four bedrooms in total, alongside two further bathrooms and the master en-suite, providing versatile accommodation for family and guests.
