SITUATION AND AMENITIES

Willingcott Valley holiday village is just 2 miles from the award winning Woolacombe Beach. Other fantastic beaches at Croyde and Saunton are only a short drive away. North Devon offers stunning scenery and attractions whichever direction you travel from the site.

Willingcott Valley is a large estate offering quality self-catering cottage accommodation, the site has far reaching views within a beautiful landscape. Surfing is one of the most popular sports in North Devon and the surf scene in Woolacombe, Croyde Putsborough and Saunton is thriving and now the UK's first World Surfing Reserve. Experienced surfers and beginners alike will love the area and all that the North Devon coast can throw at them. If you fancy a gentle walk or cycle amongst local wildlife then try the South West coast path or the Tarka Trail both in close proximity to Willingcott. The Tarka Trail is an old railway line that has been transformed into an amazing, free recreational facility that can be joined near the entrance to Willingcott Valley. The Tarka Trail offers fantastic cycle routes that run from Braunton to Meeth. The South West coast path offers the opportunity to explore dramatic scenery from rocky headlands, smuggler's coves, beautiful woodlands and river walks to sandy bays. Although close to all the activities Willingcott Valley is a peaceful retreat to get away from it all. Further afield, the favoured village of Braunton, Regional centre of Bamstaple, Exmoor National Park and the North Devon Link road are all less than half an hour by car. The link road leads on to Junction 27 of the M5 Motorway and where Tiverton Parkway offers a fast service of trains to London Paddington in just over 2 hours.
