SITUATION

Cowick Hill is a sought-after residential road on the western side of Exeter, within the popular suburb of St Thomas. The area offers a good range of everyday amenities, including local shops, a post office, doctors' surgery, pubs and schools, with West Exe School and Sainsbury's supermarket both within easy reach.

The city centre is readily accessible by bus or on foot, providing an excellent range of shopping, dining and leisure facilities, together with Exeter Cathedral and the historic Quayside. The University of Exeter is also within easy reach. For commuters, there is convenient access to the A30, A38 and M5, while Exeter St David's and Exeter Central railway stations provide regular services to London and other major centres.

DESCRIPTION

A particularly attractive and well-presented 1930s-style detached house, occupying a pleasant position within a quiet cul-de-sac and enjoying fine views across Exeter.

The property has been significantly improved and modernised, creating a comfortable and contemporary home while retaining the character and proportions associated with its period. The accommodation extends to approximately 984 sq ft and is arranged over two floors.

Outside, the property benefits from driveway parking for two cars and an attractive landscaped rear garden, with the elevated position providing far-reaching views across the city.

ACCOMMODATION

Entering in via the front door you are greeted with the entrance hall with a ground floor WC. The sitting/dining room is a particularly generous reception space, providing ample room for both comfortable seating and dining. A recessed area offers an ideal space for a home office or study, while the bay window to the front allows plenty of natural light. The kitchen/breakfast room is a superb addition to the house and has been fitted to a high standard, providing an excellent range of wall and base units, work surfaces and integrated appliances. Bi-folding doors benefit from views across the rear garden and towards the city.

On the first floor, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom has a pleasant outlook, while the second bedroom is similarly well proportioned. Completing the accommodation is a stylish contemporary bathroom, fitted with a bath, separate shower, wash hand basin and WC.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property is a private driveway providing off-road parking for up to two cars, together with an area of front garden which helps to set the house back from the road.

The rear garden has been attractively landscaped, providing a good degree of privacy and a pleasant space for outdoor dining and entertaining. The elevated position is a particular feature, with the garden and property enjoying fine views across Exeter and towards the surrounding landscape.
