PROPERTY SUMMARY

Sumptuous semi-detached Edwardian home, recently the subject of a comprehensive refurbishment, situated on a south-facing plot in the Bedford Park conservation area in central Chiswick.

With exquisitely-detailed parquet flooring throughout, the ground floor comprises a beautiful feature hallway leading to front living room, with eye-catching fireplace and bay window, stylish kitchen with ample storage and space to sit and eat, a dedicated utility room, downstairs WC and a garden room across the rear with an extra study/TV snug. To rear, a well-stocked garden with entertaining space and a brick-built outbuilding with power and light.

The first floor is bathed in natural light and central landing provides access to three excellently-proportioned double bedrooms.

A wider than average "bottom-heavy" house with an abundance of ground floor accommodation, making this the perfect downsize. Planning permission has been granted for the fourth bedroom and second bathroom in the loft.

Flanders Road is moments from Turnham Green Terrace, the tube station and the open spaces of Chiswick Back Common, whilst the 94-bus service to Piccadilly Circus stops "at the end of the road".
