LOCATION

A family-based estate, very well established with some parts dating back to the 1930's. The area offers shopping facilities in a number of locations within the estate as well as fast food restaurants, religious centres, community halls and regular bus services reaching in and around the town. The pedestrian bridge by the Railway Station links the heart of the town centre and Southcourt making all amenities very accessible by foot or cycle. There is a primary school and secondary school on the estate and the area forms part of the Aylesbury Grammar school catchment.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation begins with an entry which leads through to the living room. From here, there is access to the staircase leading to the first floor, together with a door opening into the kitchen.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and provides space for a cooker, washing machine, and under-counter fridge and freezer. An understairs storage cupboard offers useful additional storage. To the rear, the conservatory provides an ideal extra reception space, perfect for dining or relaxing while enjoying views over the garden, with a door leading directly outside.

On the first floor, the landing provides access to the loft and serves two bedrooms together with the family bathroom. The bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising a bath with shower attachment, hand basin, WC and a heated towel rail.

Externally, the property enjoys a fantastic-sized rear garden, offering excellent outdoor space for families and entertaining. A paved patio provides the perfect spot for outdoor seating, leading onto an extensive lawn bordered by a variety of established plants and shrubs. A garden shed provides useful external storage.

To the front of the property, a block-paved driveway provides convenient off-street parking.
