The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Situated on the edge of Carmarthen town, this mid-terrace house is the ideal opportunity for a first time buyer looking to get on the property ladder. Within easy access to all the amenities Carmarthen town has to offer, the property would also make a brilliant investment!

The ground floor accommodation comprises; an entrance hallway, downstairs family bathroom with modern white suite, a kitchen/diner fitted with a range of modern appliances and the living room with a feature fireplace. The first floor is home to the master bedroom, a second double bedroom and a third single bedroom, which could also be utilised as a study. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing throughout, and has gas central heating.

Externally, there is ample permit parking available to the front of the property, with additional visitor parking available down the road. The rear provides an enclosed lawned garden, great for those with children and pets. A patio area also offers a great space to sit and relax, or even dine al fresco during the summer months. There is also an outbuilding which provides great secure storage.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, a Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served by direct trains from West Wales to London.
