This generous, rectangular plot is located in the sought after coastal area of Dunnet, famed for its dramatic headland, sweeping sandy beaches, rolling countryside and tranquil lochs. Tucked just off a quiet country road, the site enjoys stunning open views over Dunnet Bay, offering an ideal setting for a peaceful home in the Highlands.

Dunnet itself is a well-loved tourist destination, home to attractions such as the award winning Rock Rose Distillery, the Northern Sands Hotel, Dunnet Bay and the nearby Dunnet Forest with its scenic walks. Despite its rural feel, the plot is conveniently positioned within easy reach of the main towns of Thurso and Wick, approximately 8.5 miles and 18.5 miles away respectively. Both towns provide a full range of amenities including supermarkets, shops, schools, and bus and rail links to Inverness.

Extending to approximately 0.49 acres, with the option to acquire additional land, this is an excellent opportunity for those seeking quiet country living while remaining well connected to local services and transport links. Planning reference number 25/02739/PIP.
