Location

Upton upon Severn is a small riverside town in South Worcestershire, with a population of around 3,000. Despite its size, it offers plenty of character and charm, with a friendly community and a good range of local amenities. The town sits on the River Severn and is well known for its attractive setting and popular events throughout the year.

Upton is conveniently located, providing easy access to nearby centres including Worcester, Cheltenham, Gloucester and Stratford-upon-Avon. It also benefits from good road links to the M5 and M50 motorways, making it well connected to the wider region.
