Standing proudly over the iconic fishing village of Cadgwith, is this handsome four bedroom detached Grade II listed cottage which enjoys scintillating views across the cove to the rugged Lizard coastline beyond. Reputedly dating back to circa 1780 this double fronted stone cottage enjoys a southerly aspect and is enviably located in a 'traffic free' location enabling one to relax and become fully immersed in the sights and sounds of the cove.

Recently featured on 'BBC Countryfile', Cadgwith is a delightful and timeless fishing cove which has a vibrant community all year round.

Inside, the cottage is flooded with natural light, revealing a wealth of period characters including latched doors, beamed ceilings, window seats and decorative fireplaces. The heart of the home is the beautifully crafted, open plan kitchen/dining area and sitting room where a bespoke kitchen, a fabulous Aga, and a striking wood burning stove create a wonderfully cosy cottage atmosphere.

Enjoying a delightful approach along the South West Coast Path, the cottage has the rare benefit of off road parking for a number of vehicles - a real bonus with parking in the cove generally being at such a premium.

Cadgwith has its origins in medieval times as a collection of fish cellars in a sheltered south east facing coastal valley with a shingle cove. Fishing subsidised local farmers' livelihoods. From the 16th Century the village became inhabited with fishing as the main occupation. Subsequently houses, lofts, capstan houses and cellars, constructed of local stone or cob walls and thatched or slated roofs, were built along the beach and up the sides of the valley leading to Cadgwith's characteristic Cornish fishing village appearance. In recent times a very small Anglican Church was built dedicated to St Mary. Today Cadgwith functions as a small fishing cove with fishermen seen bringing in their haul and working on their boats. Also the Cove has an extremely popular public house which is home to the famous Cadgwith Singers, who are well known for their repertoire of traditional folk songs. For day to day needs the close by village of Ruan Minor boasts an active community with many clubs, societies and organisations, primary school, local store/post office, Anglican Church, Methodist Chapel and doctor's surgery.

In the area is the National Trust's picturesque Kynance Cove, the village of The Lizard, which is mainland Britain's most Southerly Point and the stretches of golden sands at Kennack. Comprehensive schooling is available in the nearby village of Mullion, which lies approximately four miles distant, where there is a doctors' surgery, pharmacy and a good selection of shops.

The market town of Helston is approximately ten miles away and includes a good range of amenities having a sports centre with indoor swimming pool and a variety of national shops and supermarkets.

Outside are well tended gardens with a highlight being the terraced sun deck that has enviable panoramic sea views along the Lizard coastline to Lloyds Signal Station in the distance. This marvellous vantage point offers a front row seat to the ever changing Cornish seascape, complete with a feature wall and built in seating for lingering in the sunshine. With a sunny outlook throughout, a privileged position overlooking one of Cornwall's most picturesque coves, this is a coastal retreat that blends heritage, charm, and breathtaking scenery in perfect harmony.

The accommodation in brief comprises an open plan kitchen / dining room / sitting room, a cloakroom, utility room, shower room, four bedrooms and a family bathroom.

BATHROOM

With a white fitted suite comprising a low level w.c with vanity cupboard and shelf over, an inset wash hand basin with toiletries cupboard under and a panelled bath with curved shower screen and an electric shower. There is partial tiling to the walls, a downflow heater, an airing cupboard housing the immersion cylinder, inset spotlights, tiling to the floor, feature mirror with side cupboards and a window to the side aspect.

OUTSIDE

A few moments from the cottage is the parking area which provides off road parking for a number of vehicles. The front garden is neatly enclosed with attractive stone walling, a well tended lawn and mature borders to the side with an array of specimen plants and trees. A stone chipped pathway runs along the front and to both sides of the cottage affording access to both the courtyard garden and outside stores as well as the sheltered, side patio garden, which enjoys good degrees of privacy. The pathway winds around to reveal a magnificent coastal scene and leads up to the beautifully located sun deck which enjoys elevated panoramic sea views and a southerly aspect. A feature wall with seating would seem a perfect place in which to sit out and relax, whilst an adjacent former Piggery provides open storage but could be adapted and enhanced if required (see Agents Note One).

STORE/REAR STORE

Very useful storage areas with power and light, a pitched roof, a courtesy light and an adjacent log store and outside tap.

SERVICES

Mains water, electricity and drainage.

AGENTS NOTE ONE

We are advised that our clients secured planning permission (Ref PA20/02800) to adapt and enhance the existing Piggery building but have not implemented the same. At that time our clients had conversations with planning officials about the possibility of creating an oak framed garage with a room over in a 'boat house style' within their parking area. Our owners understanding was that such an application (if submitted) would have reasonable prospects of success.

AGENTS NOTE TWO

Our owners have indicated that the Electric Aga may be available to purchase by separate negotiation together with the electric radiators.
