THE LOCATION

Falmouth is undoubtedly one of Britain's most thriving and lively towns, offering a unique lifestyle with a bustling town centre and beautiful beaches. Recently voted as the best place to live in the UK by readers of The Sunday Times, the town offers many attractions, including Pendennis Castle, the National Maritime Museum, excellent sailing waters and a plethora of shops, bars, pubs and restaurants which buzz throughout the year. The combination of maritime heritage and modern creativity makes the town hugely popular; it is a constant carnival during the summer months, yet still energetic in the winter, offering great food festivals and sea shanties to keep all entertained. Many beautiful areas surround Falmouth, including Flushing, Mylor and the Helford River.

MICRO LOCATION

'The Rathgowry' is prominently positioned at the bottom of Gyllyngvase Hill, which links Cliff Road and Melvill Road, just a 'stone's throw' from Gyllyngvase Beach and set just beyond the delightful seafront. The town centre is an approximate 10 minute walk away. Although parking is provided, Falmouth Town Station is an approximate 5 minute walk away, providing regular train services to and from Truro (journey time circa 25 minutes). There are direct and regular trains to and from London Paddington via Truro Station (journey time circa 4.5 hours). For those travelling by plane, Newquay Airport is about 30 miles away (a circa 45 minute car journey). The immediate area surrounding 'The Rathgowry' is highly desirable indeed. Properties which become available within this micro location witness huge demand.
