Glasfryn The Green
Shenington Banbury

Property Description

A fantastic opportunity to acquire a characterful Grade II listed three-bedroom terrace, beautifully positioned overlooking the village green in the highly regarded village of Shenington. Formerly two cottages and dating back to the 17th century, the property is rich in period charm and offers significant scope for modernisation and value enhancement.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and includes two reception rooms, both enjoying views across the green, with features such as exposed beams and fireplaces. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and is complemented by a conservatory to the rear, providing additional living space and access to the outside. A cloakroom completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms, including two with attractive window seats, along with a family bathroom. The property is heated via a propane gas-(LPG) fired Rayburn, adding to the home's traditional character.

Externally, the property is set back from the green with a small open-plan front garden. To the rear is an enclosed courtyard leading to a range of brick-built outbuildings—six individual stores with power and lighting—offering excellent storage or potential for further use.

Requiring modernisation throughout, this is an exciting chance to create a truly special home in a prime village setting, ideal for buyers looking for a project with character and long-term potential.

Shenington

Nestled on the northern edge of the Cotswolds, Shenington is a highly desirable village known for its picturesque setting and strong community feel. The village centres around its attractive green, historic church and well-regarded public house, creating a quintessential English village atmosphere.

Shenington is particularly appealing for families, with a popular and highly regarded primary school within the village. Surrounded by open countryside, it offers excellent walking and cycling routes, while still being conveniently located approximately six miles from Banbury, where a full range of shops, supermarkets, rail links (including London Marylebone) and access to the M40 can be found. This combination of rural charm and accessibility makes Shenington a consistently sought-after location.
