Set within a peaceful cul-de-sac, this recently renovated semi-detached bungalow has been thoughtfully modernised to create a stylish and comfortable home. Externally the property benefits from driveway parking for at least two vehicles, as well as a garage. At the rear of the property an enclosed rear garden with patio provides an attractive setting for outdoor entertaining.

Internally, the accommodation is well-proportioned with two reception rooms offering flexible living and entertaining spaces. The contemporary kitchen is fitted with modern units and integrated appliances, enjoying views of the garden.

There are two well-appointed double bedrooms, including extensive built-in wardrobes in the principal bedroom. Completing the internals is a modern bathroom with walk-in shower.

Located within easy reach of local amenities, schools and transport links, this home combines the peaceful residential setting with everyday convenience, creating a great opportunity for a small family to make a lovely home.
