The ground floor features high ceilings and statement reception rooms, along with a fitted kitchen that offers views onto the rear garden.

The lower floor currently houses a studio and utility room, with excellent scope to create a kitchen or additional entertainment space, a games room, office, or crafts and utility area.

The upper floors offer five bedrooms in total, along with a dressing room and study, with views over the palace grounds enjoyed throughout the layout. Two bedrooms benefit from en suite facilities, with further scope to add more. The top floor showcases a stunning bathroom suite with a roll-top bath.

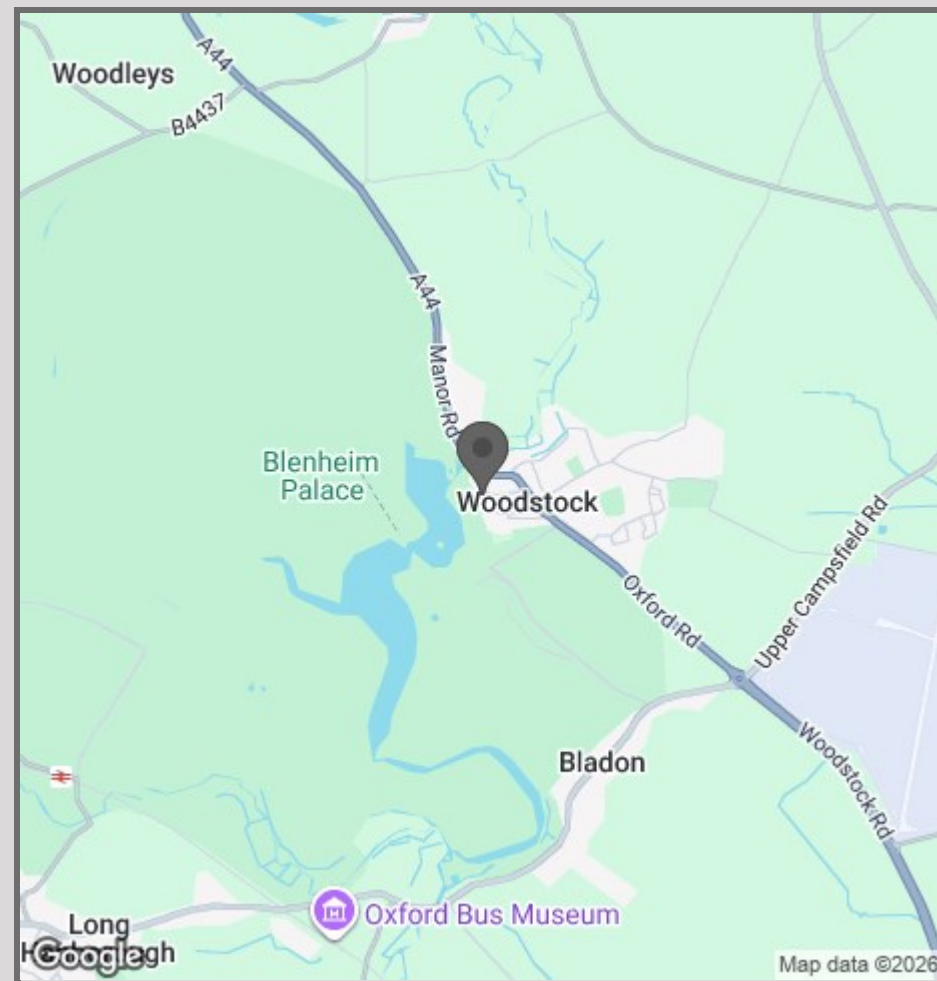

The south facing rear courtyard is an idyllic retreat with views onto the church, enclosed by its own stone wall with gated access onto Rectory Lane. Useful outbuilding storage is also available.
