

142 Elmore Street, London, N1 3AH

£500,000

On the second floor of this striking modern development is this one double bedroom apartment offering wonderful light and a unique view from every window. The property is beautifully presented throughout.

This handsome home comprises a triple aspect open plan kitchen / living / dining room with a balcony, perfect for some alfresco dining. The two-tone kitchen is finished with soft grey units that reflect the natural light which is complemented with stone worktops. The upper kitchen units are wooden effect and give a stylish look to the contemporary fully integrated kitchen.

The bedroom is well proportioned with good light from the two large windows. The bathroom is tiled throughout and in excellent order. This light and airy home also benefits from having wooden flooring, double glazing to keep the noise out and warmth in, a storage cupboard that has a washing

- Balcony
- Share of Freehold
- Well Presented Throughout
- Lift & Entry Phone System
- Large Open Plan Living

