PROPERTY SUMMARY

This delightful and spacious Three Bedroom Flat enjoys a highly desirable second floor position within an iconic "C" listed tenement in the ever popular East End of Dumbarton. Steeped in heritage, the building is admired for its architectural character, most notably the fine stained glass windows that grace the front elevation and stand as a striking reminder of the craftsmanship of its era.

This flat has an undeniable flair, with every room showcasing thoughtful design and a confident sense of style. The property retains original features, creating a beautifully balanced interior where period charm meets modern comfort. The décor throughout is rich, opulent, and thoughtfully curated, complementing the generous proportions of this exceptional home.
