🏠 EPC Rating D

An ideal period home for anyone looking for town centre living, with the added benefit of private parking and no onward chain.

Centrally located in the heart of the town allowing easy access to all amenities and walkways beside the river Avon, this charming Grade II Listed period cottage has a very tastefully decorated interior arranged over two floors. The cottage retains a wealth of inherent character and charm comprising a sitting room with a fireplace and inset log burner (currently not in use), and a spacious modern kitchen/dining room with a built in oven and 4 ring gas hob, attractive tiled flooring, and enough space for a 4-seater table. A rear door leads to a utility lobby and out into the garden.

On the first floor, there are two double bedrooms complemented by a refitted contemporary family bathroom with a shower over the bath.

Outside, there is an enclosed rear garden that has been designed for easy low maintenance and which enjoys an excellent amount of privacy. A pedestrian rear gate leads out to a very useful allocated parking space, that is accessed from Katifer Lane.

Situation

West Street sits in the heart of the historic hilltop town of Malmesbury, officially recognised as England's oldest borough. Perfectly positioned, it offers the best of both worlds — a central location within walking distance of independent shops, cosy pubs and cafés, while also being just moments from scenic countryside walks and the picturesque River Avon. Set on the edge of the Cotswolds and surrounded by two branches of the River Avon, Malmesbury is renowned for its beautiful buildings constructed from warm golden Cotswold stone. The town is rich in heritage, home to the magnificent Malmesbury Abbey and the ornate 15th-century Malmesbury Market Cross. History can be found around every corner, yet the town has a vibrant, contemporary atmosphere with regular farmers' markets and a busy local events calendar. Blending ancient charm with modern innovation, Malmesbury is also home to the design and development headquarters of Dyson, reinforcing its reputation as a forward-thinking centre for technical excellence. Conveniently located just five miles north of the M4 (Junction 17), Malmesbury provides easy access to Bristol, Bath and Swindon, while London is approximately 1½ hours away by car or train — making it an ideal base for both commuters and those seeking a lifestyle change.
