Joules are truly privileged to bring to the market this exceptionally well presented semi detached property. Originally a three bedroom home but by combining bedrooms one and three together has created a luxurious principle bedroom running across the entire front of the property. If the buyers are looking for a three bedroom home, the vendors would be willing to return the property back to its original configuration - between exchange and completion.

Designed with luxury in mind the property benefits from air conditioning throughout the majority of rooms which provides the cool air currently needed but also heating. Briefly comprising: Entrance porch, well presented lounge with feature fireplace housing multi fuel stove, comprehensively fitted kitchen with modern blue shaker style units, large stainless steel six burner Range and integrated appliances, downstairs loo and handy storage cupboard. An added luxury with the large sun room which currently houses a snooker table.

Venturing upstairs you will find the aforementioned principle bedroom with a bank of fitted robes and benefitting from the extra space provided by knocking two bedrooms into one, a further double bedroom is provided by bedroom two and a recently installed shower room with white suite and brushed gold effect fittings - again another luxurious touch!

Outside there is a garden room measuring over 17 foot with power, light and air conditioning - it is currently utilised as a gym but would lend itself to a home office or even a bar as the garden is set out to provide an excellent entertaining area with extensive paved patio areas, lawn and conifer screening for privacy. To the front is a block paved forecourt offering plenty off road parking for several cars/caravan or even a boat.

Ideal for a discerning buyer wanting a 'turnkey' property they can move their belongings into and immediately enjoy everything this wonderful home has to offer.
