Two-bedroom Stanford-le-Hope terraced gem with lounge, kitchen/diner, utility, and modern bathroom. Perfect first-time buy, family starter, or savvy investment—grab it quick!

Set in Silvertown Avenue in Stanford-le-Hope, this charming two bedroom terraced house offers bright, well-proportioned interiors. Exceptionally well priced and ideal for first-time buyers, young families or buy-to-let investment.

The property welcomes you through an entrance hallway, leading into a lovely size lounge — a comfortable and welcoming space perfect for relaxing or entertaining with an added bonus of cozy gas fire, behind the gas fire is a back boiler. Then onto the kitchen/diner, storage, workspace, and room for family dining, while a practical utility room adds further convenience.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts two generous double bedrooms, both well presented, along with a three piece bathroom finished in contemporary style.

Externally, the property enjoys a nice size rear garden, perfect for outdoor dining, gardening, or simply unwinding.

Situated in a quiet and popular residential area, the home is close to local schools, parks, shops, and Stanford-le-Hope train station, making it perfect for commuters and families alike.
