Located on the southern side of Eastgate, Glencoe was built in 1952 and occupies an especially pleasant situation with well-established grounds, a large terrace ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining and a lovely south facing garden. There is plenty of private parking at the front and within the newly constructed attached garage.

More recently the property has been subject to a programme of transformation by the current owners, including a recently fitted bathroom to the first floor and Jack & Jill shower room to the ground floor, remodelling works to the kitchen, substantial improvements to the garden room and has been freshly redecorated with majority new floor coverings throughout. The result being an immaculate home with an emphasis on light, space, comfort and modern functionality, ideal for a buyer looking for a home in 'turnkey' move in condition. In all Glencoe provides 1,603 square feet which comprises the following. Entrance hall with understairs storage, lounge, garden room, dining kitchen with utility area and a ground floor bedroom with an adjoining, newly fitted, Jack and Jill shower room. Upstairs is a landing with seating area, loft access and fitted storage, a substantial, dual aspect master bedroom a further double bedroom and a stylish, recently fitted house bathroom. The property is fully double glazed throughout and has a modern gas fired central heating system.

Glencoe sits on a generous plot with plenty of off-street parking and a newly built garage. To the side and rear the extensive terrace and gardens have been attractively landscaped with lawn, flower and herbaceous shrub borders and mature trees. There are seating areas for various times of the day to track the sun throughout the garden. An additional building, formerly the garage, provides a flexible and useful space which could be utilised as a workshop, craft room or simply as useful storage.
