

Nova Court Great Russell Street, Northampton, NN1 3BU

Prices from £172,500

Situated on Great Russell Street in the heart of Northampton town centre, this brand-new development offers contemporary living in one of the East Midlands' most well-connected investment locations. Finished to a high specification throughout, the apartments have been designed to appeal to the growing number of professionals, commuters and long-term renters seeking modern accommodation close to the town's amenities. Residents benefit from being within walking distance of Northampton's shopping, restaurants, cafés and cultural attractions, while Northampton Railway Station provides direct services to London Euston in around an hour. Excellent road links via the M1 further enhance the location, making this an attractive choice for tenants working across the Midlands and South East.

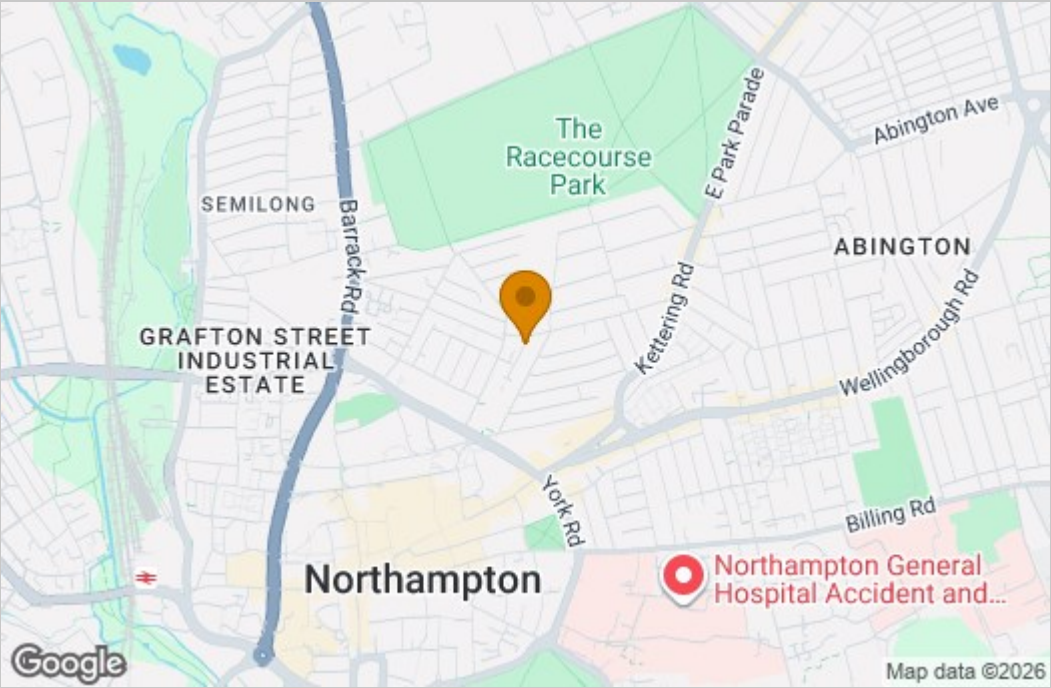

Investment

Northampton has become one of the UK's strongest regional property markets thanks to its strategic position between London and Birmingham. Home to over 230,000 residents, the town benefits from a diverse economy spanning logistics, financial services, manufacturing and professional services, with major employers including DHL, Amazon, Barclaycard and Travis Perkins supporting consistent rental demand. Ongoing investment across the town centre, alongside wider regeneration projects and new residential developments, is helping to transform Northampton into an increasingly desirable place to live and work.
