31 Castle Street, Warkworth, Morpeth, NE65 0UL

Nestled within the highly sought-after coastal village of Warkworth, this characterful stone-built mid-terraced home offers an exceptional opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented property in one of Northumberland's most picturesque settings.

Warkworth is renowned for its stunning historic street scene, with traditional stone buildings leading up to the magnificent castle, which occupies a commanding position overlooking the village. With its boutique shops, welcoming pubs, riverside walks and close proximity to the beach, it remains one of the region's most desirable locations.

The property itself is immaculately presented and currently operates as a successful holiday let, making it equally attractive as an investment opportunity or as a charming permanent residence.

The accommodation is light and well-proportioned throughout. The kitchen is fitted with high-specification units, offering ample storage and integrated appliances, with generous space for dining. Doors open directly onto the impressive rear garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living.

To the first floor, there is a generous double bedroom to the front and a second double bedroom to the rear, both beautifully presented and enjoying plenty of natural light. The bathroom is fitted with a contemporary white suite, finished to a high standard.

Externally, the property benefits from a particularly long rear garden which is not overlooked, providing a private and tranquil outdoor space — ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

Further features include elegant sash windows with fitted shutters, high ceilings, and quality fittings throughout, all of which enhance the property's character and appeal.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to secure a stunning home in an iconic Northumberland village. Early viewing is highly recommended.
