An interesting studio apartment located in the heart of Newport Pagnell town centre in the Grade II Listed former bank building, dating back to 1870.

The property has accommodation on the ground floor comprising an entrance hall, open plan living/ bedroom with kitchen area and a separate shower room. It has a lofty feel with a 3.6m high ceiling and an informal mezzanine area which has been added for storage and which currently provides space for a mattress, with limited head height. Outside there is a large shared garden.

The apartment is located in the heart of the town centre, just a few footsteps away from an array of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and pubs and just a short walk to lovely walks across Bury Common, and along the banks of the River Great Ouse and River Ouzel.

Ground Floor & Mezzanine

A tall wooden gated entrance leads off the High Street into the passageway giving access to the apartment and gardens.

The apartment has a private entrance hall with doors to the shower room and living area. The living room/ bedroom has a high ceiling, around 3.6 m in height, with two tall windows to the High Street. The kitchen area has units, oven and hob, one and a half bowl sink unit and space for appliances.

The shower room has a modern white suite comprising WC, wash basin and a double sized shower cubicle. Tiled walls.

A ladder leads up to mezzanine area, an informal area with limited head room of around 1.2 m - this would make an ideal storage area, and currently provides a platform for a king size mattress and sleeping area.

Outside

Good size shared gardens which are laid to paving and gravel, located to the rear of the building.

Location - Newport Pagnell

The town was first mentioned in the Domesday Book of 1086 as Neuport, Old English for "New Market Town", but by that time the old Anglo-Saxon town was dominated by the Norman invaders. The suffix "Pagnell" came later when the manor passed into the hands of the Pagnell (Paynel) family. It was the principal town of the Three Hundreds of Newport, a district that had almost the same boundary as the modern Borough. The area is well served with local schooling, leisure facilities including a swimming pool, shops, pubs and restaurants. Further amenities can be found in Central Milton Keynes, which is a short drive away. Central Milton Keynes and nearby Wolverton both offer links into London Euston. CMK offers direct links with journey times of approximately 40 minutes.

Note for Purchasers

In order that we meet legal obligations, should a purchaser have an offer accepted on any property marketed by us they will be required to undertake a digital identification check. We use a specialist third party service to do this. There will be a non refundable charge of £18 (£15+VAT) per person, per purchase, for this service.

Buyers will also be asked to provide full proof of, and source of, funds - full details of acceptable proof will be provided upon receipt of your offer.

We may recommend services to clients to include financial services and solicitor recommendations, for which we may receive a referral fee – typically between £0 and £200
