Tucked away within a charming courtyard just off the main street, Oak Cottage is a beautifully presented 16th-century Grade II Listed home, presenting a balance of period character with modern finishes. Despite its peaceful setting, the property is only a short walk from all the amenities that this sought-after market town has to offer.

Situated on the edge of the Lake District and the Yorkshire Dales, Kirkby Lonsdale is a highly desirable and picturesque market town renowned for its vibrant community and historic charm. The town offers a fantastic range of independent shops, cafes, restaurants, and pubs, alongside everyday amenities.

Famous for landmarks such as Ruskin's View and the River Lune, the area provides excellent opportunities for walking, as well as being home to well-regarded schools and convenient transport links to further add to its appeal, making it a popular choice for both permanent residents and second-home owners alike.

Upon entering through the front door, you are welcomed into an entrance hall with space for coats and shoes. To the left is a well-appointed bathroom, comprising a bath with shower over, pedestal sink, and W.C., with complementary tiled walls.

Leading on from the entrance hall is the impressive kitchen dining room. This bright and airy space benefits from dual aspect windows to both the front and rear, overlooking the churchyard and allowing plenty of natural light to flood in. There is ample space for a dining table, alongside attractive feature beams that enhance the cottage's character. The kitchen itself has been thoughtfully upgraded by the current owners with a bespoke Ramwells kitchen, offering a range of wall and base units with complementary worktops and upstands. Integrated Miele appliances include an oven, microwave and dishwasher, as well as an integrated fridge freezer, and an induction hob with extractor over. The room is finished with stylish Amtico flooring.

Stairs rise to the first floor, where a feature exposed stone wall and vaulted ceiling with beams create a real sense of character. The living room is a light-filled space with dual aspect windows and views over the churchyard, centred around a cosy wood-burning stove. There is also a useful storage cupboard and a sliding door leading into a separate snug area, ideal as a reading room or home office.

A further staircase leads to a mezzanine level, offering a versatile space with feature beams, a Velux window, and room for a double bed.

Returning to the ground floor, stairs descend to the lower ground floor where an inner hall provides space and plumbing for a washing machine. Bedroom one is located here, featuring exposed stone walls, traditional stone flooring and beams, with space for a double bed. The room benefits from a recently fitted en suite shower room, comprising a pedestal sink, W.C., and a shower with waterfall shower head.

Outside, the property enjoys ownership of the large cobbled courtyard to the front with seating area and space for potted plants and flowers.
