PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Enjoying a peaceful countryside setting just half a mile from Dunbar and boasting captivating coastal views towards the iconic Bass Rock, this charming two-bedroom property presents a rare opportunity.

Beyond the striking red stone exterior, the front door opens into a private entrance vestibule where carpeted stairs ascend to a good-sized first-floor hallway with built-in storage and space suitable for home working. This then ushers you into a light and airy triple aspect sitting room. Featuring an elegant decor of wooden flooring, and a calm colour palette along with built-in shelving, it exudes an ambience of relaxation and comfort.

From here you move into an impressive south-east-facing dining kitchen showcasing white wall and floor units, a tiled splashback, and illuminated black worktops in an L-shaped layout. High-spec integrated appliances include a hob, eye-level grill, oven, and extractor hood.

Continuing along the hallway, and the east-facing principal double bedroom with its VELUX window, is restful and inviting. A second double bedroom is equally appealing and both share access to a contemporary bathroom, complete with a shower enclosure, bath, WC, and washbasin.

Externally, an expansive shared garden offers plenty of space to enjoy the peaceful rural surroundings and outdoor living. There is an allocated parking space, and ample visitor parking available.

Additional information: Quarterly payment to private residents' association (14 properties) currently £250 to cover communal costs.
