Property Details

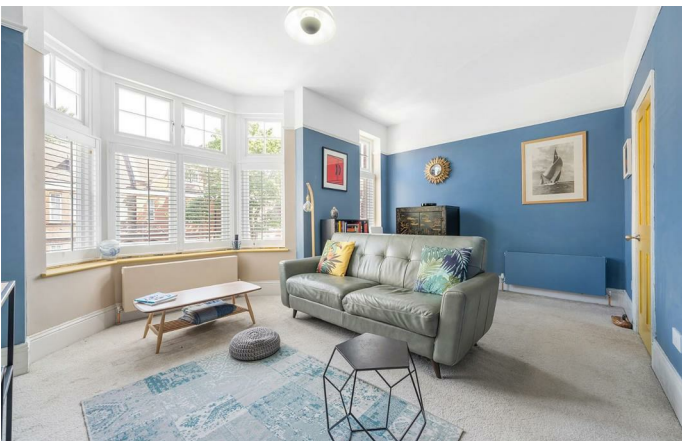

Set within Streatham's sought-after ABCD roads, this handsome Edwardian family home offers four double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a south-facing garden and beautifully balanced accommodation across three floors. Behind an attractive red-brick façade, the property opens into a welcoming hallway with high ceilings and an elegant staircase. A spacious double reception features a bay window with plantation shutters, a feature fireplace and French doors opening onto the garden, while the impressive dine-in kitchen enjoys underfloor heating, three double glazed sash windows, French doors, sleek cabinetry, a central island with gas hob, a Neff double oven and ample space for family dining. The south-facing garden offers a blank canvas for new owners, complemented by a useful shed and side return. A guest WC completes the ground floor. Three generous double bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom - also with underfloor heating - occupy the first floor, while the top floor is dedicated to a superb principal suite with fitted wardrobes, an open plan shower and wash basin, separate WC, eaves storage and a charming arched window fitted with shutters.
