INTERIOR

To the front is a spacious lounge, featuring a large window that fills the room with an abundance of natural light.

The lounge leads through to the kitchen, which also provides access to the side porch. While perfectly functional in its current condition, the kitchen offers excellent potential for modernisation, presenting a fantastic opportunity to create a space tailored to your own style and needs.

To the rear of the property are the shower room and the second bedroom, which is currently used as a dining room. Completing the accommodation is the conservatory, providing a peaceful spot to relax while enjoying views over the garden.

The generous principal bedroom is situated at the front of the property and benefits from built-in wardrobes, offering excellent storage.

The shower room is fully functional and ready for immediate use, although buyers may wish to update it over time.

GARDEN

Occupying a generous plot, the outdoor space is a real highlight of this bungalow. The well-sized garden wraps around the front, side and rear of the property, offering an abundance of outdoor space to enjoy. It is predominantly laid to lawn and complemented by mature shrubs and planted borders, providing colour, character and a good degree of privacy throughout the seasons.

There is ample space for outdoor seating and entertaining, while also offering excellent potential for further landscaping to suit individual tastes and requirements. To the front of the property, a driveway provides off-road parking for multiple vehicles.

This unique plot offers a wonderful setting for enjoying the outdoors and presents excellent potential for future enhancements or extensions (subject to the necessary consents).

LOCATION

Penketh is an attractive suburb within easy driving distance to Warrington Town Centre. It is a sought-after area for families. The suburb is home to a selection of cosy pubs, including the Ferry Tavern which sits on the Trans Pennine Trail, making it a popular spot for dog walkers and cyclists. The pub is also home to the annual Glastonferry music festival which is always a sell out event in the community. Penketh benefits from a great range of shops, parks and public transport connections. There is also a leisure centre, library and golf club, meaning residents have a great range of facilities right on the doorstep.
