The property is Grade II Listed and dates from the late 18th Century with further additions in the mid 19th Century.

Text of the Listing:

Farmhouse, late C18, extended early-mid C19. Original house of coursed ironstone rubble with ashlar dressings, hipped C20 plain tile roof with brick ridge stacks. West front 5 window range, in 2 parts, that to right of 2 storeys, 3 windows wide (central window possibly originally a door), 6/6 sashes with gauged stone lintels. Left hand part, 2 windows wide of 3 storeys. Ground floor 6/6 sashes (smaller than those to the right), first floor a similar sash and a blind window, second floor 3/3 sashes. C19 addition of brick, parallel to original block, but slightly shorter, also with hipped plain tile roof. South end united by rendering to disguise difference in materials and treated as double-fronted facade, 3 windows wide, with central distyle Doric portico (reroofed to monopitch), 8/8 sash windows, top left one false, and full length French window to right of door. At one time known as King's Hill Lodge.

The property offers good size family accommodation arranged over two storeys with two attic rooms and enjoys far reaching south-westerly views across the valley and adjoining farm and woodland.

The property also has a 1.50 acre grass paddock and an extensive range of traditional farm buildings to the rear which are included in the sale, with a delayed possession being given by the vendor until 1st June 2028.

The accommodation briefly comprises:

GROUND FLOOR: Entrance Hall, Study, Dining Room, Drawing Room, Farmhouse Kitchen / Diner, Inner Hall, Shower Room with WC, Inner Hall, Utility, Garden Room, Entrance Porch, Toilet WC.

FIRST FLOOR: Landing, Master Bedroom, Jack and Jill Bathroom, 3 further Double Bedrooms, two with en-suite Shower Rooms, separate WC.

SECOND FLOOR: Two Attic Rooms.

CELLARS: A number of below ground Cellars.

GARAGE: Open fronted single garage.

RANGE OF TRADITIONAL FARM BUILDINGS TO REAR: vacant possession being given 1st June 2028

GRASS Paddock: extending to approximately 1.50 acres

LOCATION

Beaumont Chase Farmhouse is located approximately 1.5 miles to the south west of the market town of Uppingham in the county of Rutland.

The property is accessed directly from the Stockerston Road, down a long private driveway leading to the property. The house sits in an elevated and enviable position with beautiful views over the valley of the Eye Brook just on the Rutland border with Leicestershire.

The house is set in open, undulating countryside and sits immediately west of the Eye Brook Reservoir. It lies along the B664 arterial route, which runs south-west out of Uppingham towards the nearby villages of Medbourne and Hallaton.

- Uppingham (Rutland): 1.5 miles north-east. The closest market town, providing local services, shops, and the renowned Uppingham School.
- Corby (Northamptonshire): 9 miles south-east. A major regional centre, easily accessible via the A427.
- Market Harborough (Leicestershire): 12 miles west. The main local government and commercial hub for the Harborough district, featuring a mainline train station to London St Pancras.
- Leicester (City): 16 miles west-north-west. The major East Midlands city centre for extensive shopping, amenities, and transport connections.

SERVICES

Electricity: The property currently shares a mains electricity supply with the farm. It will be the purchasers responsibility to pay for a new electric supply to be installed to the farmhouse.

Water: The property currently shares a mains water supply with the farm. The Vendor will install and pay for a new separate water supply to the farm within two years of the sale completion date. The Vendor will also disconnect any water supplied to the farm from this mains supply at his sole expense. The existing water supply to the house will then become the sole property of the purchaser. In this two year interim period, the Vendor will pay for all water used
