Interior

Ground Floor:

On entering the home to a Scandi style entrance hall, with a double bedroom to the front, and a versatile room, currently a reception/office opening to the landscaped, terraced garden at the rear. A well appointed bathroom sits between the two rooms and a washing machine fits neatly in a purpose made space under the stairs. .

First Floor:

Climbing to the first floor, where the social space is found, with fresh white painted walls and powder grey woodwork, a large window overlooks the pretty garden from the sitting room.

A large kitchen with oodles of base and wall units in sleek granite grey run along two walls, with a pop of orange in the oven splashback. Integral appliances include a fridge/freezer, electric oven and hob, extractor hood and dishwasher. A large window affords views up and down the street.

Second Floor:

Further up on the second floor is where two generous double bedrooms await, one to the fore with a sea view and the other to the rear. With vaulted ceilings and a 'Jack and Jill' shower room sitting between them, this floor provides a space to escape after a long day.

Exterior

The house has much kerb appeal and is well looked after, with a special space for bins, a bike shed and a pretty window box with flowers. Steps up to the entrance door. The garden at the rear has a level terrace accessible from the reception and is a very secluded spot. Steps from the side lead up to another garden with mature trees for shade, pretty flower beds and a raised deck area.

Cowes

Cowes, a short walk downhill, and is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront. Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where you can find the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland.
