The Property

The house is entered via a well lit entrance hall, leading through to a generously sized sitting room. This is a welcoming, sociable space with a large front-facing window and a distinctive feature wall that adds character without overwhelming the room. The proportions allow for flexible furniture arrangements, making it well suited to both everyday living and entertaining.

To the rear, the kitchen/dining room spans the width of the house. The kitchen is fitted with modern cabinetry, integrated appliances and a tiled splashback, while the dining area is positioned beside glazed doors opening directly onto the garden. This creates an easy flow between inside and out, particularly in the warmer months.

Upstairs, three bedrooms are arranged around a bright landing. The principal bedroom is set to the front, with a second double bedroom overlooking the rear. A third bedroom offers flexibility as a study, nursery or guest room. The family bathroom is finished in a contemporary style, with full-height tiling, a bath with shower over and a vanity unit with storage.

The Outside

The rear garden has been thoughtfully arranged for low maintenance, combining a paved terrace with an area of artificial lawn. Timber fencing provides enclosure, while planting softens the boundaries. A timber outbuilding offers useful storage or potential for hobby use.

To the front, a driveway provides ample off-street parking and leads to a detached garage. The overall setting feels open yet private, with a clear sense of space between neighbouring homes.

The Area

Broadlands Way is positioned to the north-east of Colchester, within a well-established residential neighbourhood characterised by low-density housing and a peaceful, suburban atmosphere.

The area is well placed for access to Colchester's historic city centre, which offers a wide range of independent shops, restaurants and cultural venues, alongside mainline rail services from Colchester North station providing direct connections to London Liverpool Street.

Everyday amenities are close at hand, with nearby supermarkets, local schooling and green spaces all within easy reach. The surrounding area also benefits from good road connections, making it well suited for both commuters and families alike.
