At the heart of the home is a superb open-plan kitchen and living room, thoughtfully designed to offer ample space for both dining and relaxing. The kitchen comes fully equipped with a comprehensive range of built-in appliances. Flooded with natural light, the living area opens directly onto a private south-westerly facing balcony, enjoying a delightful outlook across the surrounding parkland and green space, the perfect spot for evening relaxation or entertaining guests. Both bedrooms are well-proportioned double rooms, with the main bedroom benefiting from its own modern en-suite shower room, while the second bedroom is served by a well-appointed family bathroom. Further enhancing its appeal, an impressive EPC rating of B combined with Council Tax Band C ensures this is an exceptionally efficient and cost-effective home to run. Externally, the development is well maintained and fosters a friendly, welcoming community atmosphere among residents. The property includes one allocated parking space alongside availability for visitor permits. Situated within easy reach of both Addlestone town centre and local railway links, the position is equally suited for commuters and leisure seekers alike. A particular highlight treasured by the current owners is the ability to take a scenic walk directly into neighbouring Weybridge along the canal, while excellent road connections to Junction 11 of the M25 ensure travel connectivity further afield.
