Situation:

Tedburn St Mary is a small village on the edge of Dartmoor National Park and is surrounded by beautiful countryside. The village has a population of around 1,000 people and is known for its friendly community and peaceful way of life. Tedburn has a rich history, with evidence of human settlement dating back to the Bronze Age. The village was also an important stop on the old coaching route between Exeter and Okehampton. One of the most notable features of the village is its beautiful church, which dates back to the 13th century. The church is dedicated to St Mary and is a Grade I listed building. It features a stunning tower and spire, as well as a number of interesting architectural details. The church is still in use today and is a popular destination for visitors to the village.

Tedburn St Mary is also home to a number of local businesses, including a post office, a village shop, and a pub. The village has a strong sense of community, with regular events and activities taking place throughout the year. These include a popular annual carnival, as well as a range of sports and social clubs. There is easy access on to the A30 with Exeter only 10 miles distant.

Description:

This superb village home has remained in the same family ownership for many years and has been maintained to an excellent standard throughout. Numerous improvements have been undertaken including the installation of modern uPVC double glazing and an oil fired boiler. Of particular note are the stunning countryside views in all directions.

Centrally located on its generous garden plot, the property is a mere stroll from the village centre amenities and offers plentiful private parking and a sizeable double garage, over which there is an extensive loft space, ideal for conversion, subject to obtaining the necessary consents. There are superb countryside walks nearby and access on to the A30 is close by. A real must see.
