Primrose Cottage is a charming Georgian home tucked away within the historic Cleveland Cottages in Walcot, just a short walk from Bath city centre and its array of independent cafés, restaurants and local amenities. Arranged over two floors, the property beautifully combines period character with practical living space, featuring a welcoming sitting room with wooden flooring, a fireplace and built-in shelving, leading through to a dining room and a well-appointed galley kitchen overlooking the courtyard. Upstairs are two double bedrooms, both with original fireplaces and exposed beams. Externally, the cottage benefits from two private outdoor spaces, including a south-east facing tiled courtyard ideal for relaxing or entertaining, and a roof terrace providing an additional secluded retreat.
