The current owner says:

A charming three-bedroom period family home, situated within a quiet residential enclave in Barnes, offering well-proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors and complemented by both front and rear gardens.

A charming three-bedroom period family home, situated within a quiet residential enclave in Barnes, offering well-proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors and complemented by both front and rear gardens.

The ground floor provides a welcoming entrance leading into a generous front reception room, with attractive bay-window frontage providing good natural light. To the rear is a spacious kitchen/dining room, creating an excellent everyday family and entertaining space, with direct access onto the rear garden.

The first floor offers two well-proportioned bedrooms, together with a family bathroom. The second floor is dedicated to the principal bedroom, which benefits from its own en-suite shower room and useful eaves storage. The upper-floor accommodation provides a good degree of separation from the main living areas.

The property also benefits from a front garden measuring approximately 15'9" x 12'9", together with a larger rear garden measuring approximately 15'10" x 14'6", providing valuable outside space that is particularly attractive for family living.

Overall, the property offers a combination of period character, flexible three-bedroom accommodation, two bathrooms, generous living space and private gardens, in a sought-after Barnes location.
