Low House Farm Court, Silsden Keighley

A beautifully appointed three-bedroom converted barn, ideally situated within a quiet cul-de-sac, tucked away close to the Leeds and Liverpool Canal in the highly sought-after and well-regarded area of Silsden.

This substantial stone-built period property forms part of an exclusive development of just a handful of attached homes, thoughtfully converted from a former farmhouse and barn. It is readily accessible to the facilities in the town centre where there is a good choice of everyday amenities.

Upon entering the ground floor, you are welcomed into the spacious kitchen diner, the true heart of the home, offering a range of base and wall units along with integrated appliances including a dishwasher, washing machine, oven, and hob. There is ample space for a dining table and chairs, enjoying character features such as the beamed ceiling. The living room is bright and inviting featuring a gas fire, creating a cosy focal point. A useful storage cupboard is conveniently located beneath the stairs. A door from here leads to the rear garden.

The first floor comprises three well-presented double bedrooms, all offering versatile and generous accommodation. The master bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room. The house bathroom is also fitted with a three-piece suite, complete with a shower over the bath.

Externally, the property offers off-street parking to the front with space for two vehicles. To the rear, there is a private enclosed patio area, an ideal setting for relaxing or entertaining outdoors.
