Located in the highly sought-after village of Charvil, the site sits between Sonning and Twyford, approximately five miles east of Reading. The village is surrounded by attractive countryside and offers an excellent quality of life, with nearby riverside walks, a local nature reserve, and a strong selection of outdoor and recreational amenities.

Charvil benefits from a welcoming community atmosphere with local conveniences and traditional public houses, while nearby Twyford provides a wider range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and services. Twyford also offers excellent transport links, including a mainline railway station with fast services to Reading and London Paddington.

The area is particularly popular with families due to its strong educational provision, with the property falling within the catchment for Charvil Primary School and The Piggott School, a highly regarded secondary school with an excellent reputation.
