LOCATION

No. 5 Erskine Brae enjoys a superb elevated setting in the picturesque village of Culross. A beautiful and historic coastal sea-port village dating back to medieval times yet lying just 12 miles west of the Forth Road Bridge and now has a vibrant social community for both adults and children with a small primary school, parks, eating places as well as a gallery, renowned Pub/Restaurant and pier. The village is served with good bus links and is within easy commuting distance to both Edinburgh and Glasgow.

Nearby Dunfermline is Scotland's historic capital, a bustling city with a good road and rail network making it one of the most accessible in central Scotland. Dunfermline has a broad range of amenities including professional services, a good retail offering and leisure facilities including the principal bus station on Queen Anne's Street and educational establishments associated with a modern City. Dunfermline mainline railway station offers regular and direct services to Edinburgh's stations, including Waverley (under 35 minutes), Edinburgh Gateway (under 25 minutes) and Haymarket (under 30 minutes). Edinburgh International Airport is only 16 miles away and there's easy access to M90 and Scotland's major motorway network.
