GENERAL INFORMATION

THE PROPERTY

This beautiful Victorian stone semi-detached home sits in an elevated location in the favoured market town of Matlock, in the Derbyshire Dales. Oozing character and charm, the property spans four floors. On the ground floor, you'll find a welcoming hallway with stairs to the first floor and a door to the dining room, with a cosy lounge off that features a log burner for cooler evenings.

The lower ground floor has a spacious dining kitchen with hand-painted kitchen units and custom hand-built cupboards in the dining area. A French door opens to the garden. There is also a utility cupboard, a guest cloakroom, and a cupboard housing the gas central heating boiler.

The first floor includes the main bedroom, a third bedroom, and the family bathroom. The second floor has a large guest bedroom with a study area, as the owners currently use it, along with great views and storage in the eaves.

At the front, there is a small foregarden with a paved path leading to the main entrance door. A path runs along the side of the house to the rear garden, which has a cottage feel and offers views over the town and dales. The garden also features patio areas and flower beds.

LOCATION

Matlock town centre offers a good range of amenities including shops, schools and leisure facilities. The nearby A6 provides swift onward travel to the north and south. The nearby market town of Bakewell is approx. 7 miles to the north. Derby is approx. 15 miles to the south, Chesterfield is approx. 10 miles to the north-east and Sheffield is approx. 20 miles to the north, all of these offer a more comprehensive range of amenities and are within commuting distance. Junction 28 of the M1 Motorway is approx. 12 miles providing swift onward travel to the north and south, other nearby regional centres and the main motorway network.
