PARTICULARS OF SALE

This grade II listed building was converted to a 1 bedroom cottage around 10 years ago, but still feels brand new. Lying close to the railway engine sheds, it is only a couple of hundred yards level walk from the very centre of town, yet has its own parking space and is positioned in a concealed location making very peaceful, despite its central location.

We feel this unique property could make an ideal holiday cottage or second home – perfect for a train enthusiast - you can watch the steam trains roll into town from your own living room!

From the path at the foot of the steps a glazed entrance door flanked on either side by narrow windows, opens directly into....

Living Room: with a tiled floor with underfloor heating the living room has a window to the side looking towards the railway tracks as well as the glazed door and screen. The vaulted room has exposed beams and is fitted with an extensive fitted kitchen including a peninsular breakfast bar.

The kitchen is well appointed and has a sink plus an integral electric oven, hob and cooker hood, a slimline concealed dishwasher, an integral microwave and fridge with freezer compartment.

One door leads to the bedroom and a second door leads to Utility: A surprise addition to a well fitted property, the utility has a second sink and an automatic washing machine is concealed amongst the base units, the remainder offering lots of storage. The tiled floor has underfloor heating and a door connects through to ...

WC Cloakroom: fitted with a simple white suite comprising a low flush suite and a wash hand basin. Extractor fan, tiled floor.

Bedroom: A double bedroom with tiled floor with underfloor heating and a sash window facing to the front (south). A connecting door leads on to En-Suite Shower Room: with tiled floor and white suite comprising a WC with concealed cistern, wash basin and tiled shower cubicle. Heated towel rail and extractor fan.

Outside

Although the owner has been of the habit of using the gravelled open space outside the cottage as a patio area, suitable for games/barbecue/dog maybe a small hot tub. Technically the property doesn't own this land and has no rights over it.

The property does have a large, private car parking space, just off the roadside, up above the level of the cottage. This is secured with fencing and a chain and has a block paved surface. A private flight of steps link the cottage and parking space.

Planning

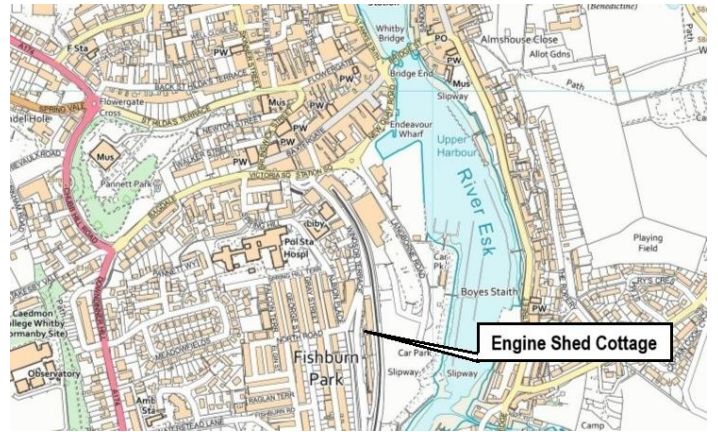

The property is grade II listed and lies in a conservation area. The planning permission for the development of the property states as condition 15 of planning permission ref (14/01478/FL):

‘The residential accommodation shall not be used for purposes other than holiday letting purposes. For the purpose of this condition 'holiday letting' means letting to the same person, groups of persons or family for period(s) not exceeding a total of 28 days in any one financial year. The accommodation shall not be used as the main residence of any occupant.’
