Its extraordinary ceiling height, oversized historic window and carefully considered interiors give this compact apartment a character and sense of scale far beyond its footprint — an intimate private suite within one of the North Cotswolds' most distinctive historic residences.

Outside there are beautifully maintained gardens and an orangery which provides a lovely seating area for peace and tranquility. The tenant, as a resident of Sherborne House, also benefits from use of the communal gardens, which extend to around 12 acres, the heated swimming pool, sauna, gym and tennis court.
