Internal Description

Upon entering this stunning family home, you are greeted with a porch which then leads into the welcoming hallway, with original floorboards which enhance the warm ambience. The kitchen and dining area is a superb heart of the home, with plenty of space for family time or hosting. The cabinetry is complimented by the worktops and flooring, whilst to the front there are amazing westerly views to be enjoyed. The kitchen layout has been thoughtfully considered and is well-appointed. The utility room boasts rustic floor tiles and a most attractive unit, with an inset sink which creates a unique and most useful area. There is a door to the side which leads out onto the patio. The living room is a warm and inviting space which is enhanced by the log burning stove, and offers beautiful views which can be enjoyed from the balcony. There are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, all with plenty of space for growing families, or multi-generational living. A bright and airy shower room, with underfloor heating, and a separate cloakroom complete the living accommodation. Throughout the property there are period features which blend the old charm of the 1930's with contemporary living, making this property rather special.

External Description

The property is accessed via a walled driveway where you will find a garage, with a parking space in front, and an additional allocated parking space. There are attractive stone steps leading up to the front door from where you will enjoy stunning views. The pretty garden to the front has been landscaped to create individual terraces and pathways meander through the herbaceous beds and lawn. To the side is a generous and sunny patio, which is perfect for entertaining.
