IF YOU LIVED HERE...

There's a wonderful sense of scale throughout, with four reception rooms giving the home real flexibility for family life, entertaining, working from home or future reconfiguration. The raised ground floor is arranged with two generous reception rooms, including a bay-fronted front room, while the rear reception leads through to the kitchen/diner, lean-to and utility space beyond.

The lower ground floor adds further depth, with another reception room, a separate kitchen, bedroom and bathroom, creating useful self-contained potential or extra room for guests, older children or multi-generational living. Across the upper floors, the bedrooms are well proportioned, with two on the first floor, another bedroom on the half landing, and a further bedroom and study on the second floor. Four bathrooms are arranged throughout the house, supporting the scale and flexibility of the layout.

To the rear, the south-facing garden measures approximately 7.15m x 6m, offering a private outdoor space to enjoy in warmer months. The separate garage is another rare bonus, while the overall footprint offers clear development opportunity, subject to the necessary permissions.

WHAT ELSE?

- Chatsworth Road is close by for independent cafés, restaurants, shops and Sunday market browsing.

- Clapton and Hackney Central are both within reach, offering useful Overground connections and plenty of neighbourhood favourites.

WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I feel right at home living in Hackney, even though I am originally from Greece. You can be yourself, wear what you like and always feel welcome. The multicultural spirit shines through in the cafés, restaurants, shops and bars. From specialty coffee and Michelin star dining to parks and art galleries, Hackney has something for everyone. Weekends at Victoria Park or Broadway Market are full of community energy, great food and local makers. The marshes are ideal for dog walks, and nearby you can stop by the Princess of Wales for a Sunday roast, Here East for brunch or Crate Brewery for pizza and a local beer. Homes range from Victorian and Georgian houses to red brick local authority blocks and modern developments with shared roof terraces. I have truly found my place in Hackney, and it holds a special spot in my heart!"
