England & Wales EU Directive 2002/91/EC

A spacious and well presented three bedroom home in a quiet, residential area.

Ground Floor

The ground floor accommodation comprises open-plan living dining room which, in turn, is semi-open plan to the refitted kitchen. The second reception room is currently used as a hair salon, but could offer multiple other options such as home office, playroom etc.

First Floor

Upstairs are three bedrooms with the main and second both being well-proportioned doubles and the third being a spacious single. Both the main bedroom and third bedrooms benefit from built-in storage. The family bathroom has been recently refitted with a 'P' bath with shower over, wash hand basin and WC. Additionally there is a useful airing cupboard.

Outside

The property is set back from the road and is accessed via a path. The rear garden has been tiered and landscaped and provides a large patio space directly to the rear of the property as well as a further patio at the bottom of the garden allowing you to enjoy the sunshine throughout the day. The remainder is laid to lawn and there is a useful shed.

The Location

Hemel Hempstead is a popular new town in Hertfordshire with a mixture of new, modern and older architecture and enjoys numerous open green spaces including the recently rejuvenated Jellicoe Water Gardens in the town centre. The town centre has recently been regenerated and is now a vibrant busy attraction. The Marlowes indoor shopping centre offers chain and independent shops whilst the outside Riverside boasts a number of larger chains and a Pizza Express Restaurant.

The local area of Apsley is an outer district of Hemel Hempstead and is still a busy commercial centre. The Victorian shops that grew up when it was a mill town now house newsagents, public houses, restaurants, and a range of small businesses. The former mill sites are taken up with supermarkets, retail parks and offices. Housing developments combining the canal side location with the ease of access to Apsley railway station (offering direct access to London Euston) have been very successful. Situated 24 miles to the northwest of London and conveniently served by the M1 and M25 motorways, Hemel Hempstead has quickly grown in popularity in the last few years. We have seen more migration from the London suburbs, largely due to its fantastic commuter links including the London Northwestern Railway Overground train to London Euston taking only 35 minutes. Both London Luton and London Heathrow airports are easily accessible via the M1 and M25 respectively.
