

Steven Oates are delighted to offer for rent this charming three-bedroom end-of-terrace cottage, situated in the highly sought-after village of Essendon and offering well-proportioned accommodation together with attractive outside space and driveway parking.

The ground floor provides two separate reception rooms, offering versatile living and dining space, alongside a spacious kitchen/breakfast room with room for everyday dining and access towards the garden. Upstairs, the property offers three bedrooms together with a family bathroom.

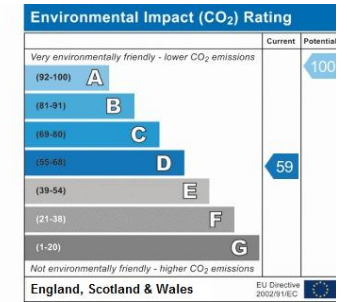

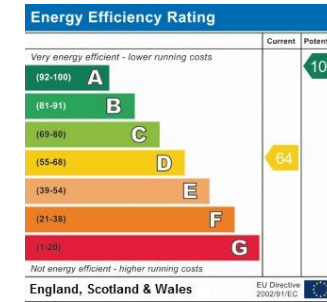

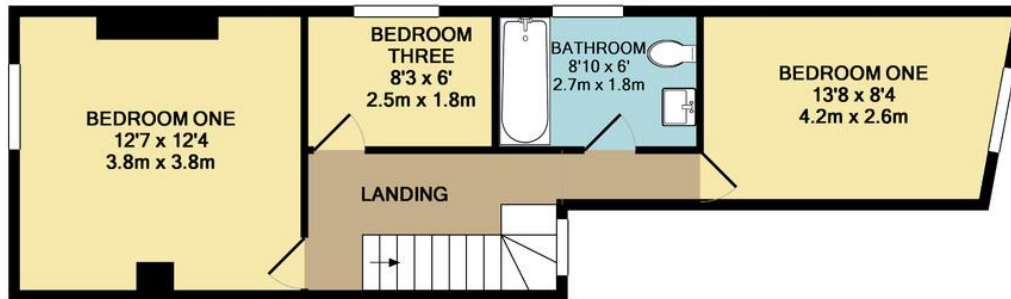

Externally, Fir Tree Cottage benefits from gardens to both the front and rear, with the front providing an attractive approach to the property and private driveway parking. The established surroundings complement the cottage particularly well and add to its character and village setting. Offered unfurnished and available mid-November 2026
