All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Located in an enviable spot within this select development is this beautifully presented, four double bed, four bath townhouse with on-site security. With the interior design by Conran and Partners, the emphasis is on contemporary living flooded by natural light via floor to ceiling windows. There is a Poggenpohl fully integrated kitchen with Corian worktops and splashbacks, a smart control system for lighting, blinds, temperature and video door entry as well as underfloor heating throughout. There are two reception rooms with a terrace leading to the rear garden. The internal staircase with glass balustrade leads up to the glazed encased roof terrace flooding natural light through the centre of the house. There is a master bedroom and bathroom which spans the entire top floor of the property with a terrace on each side. Once on the roof terrace, you can see views across the private communal gardens and the City including the historic Cathedral. The property also comes with secure underground allocated parking. Gabriel Square is ideally located within close proximity to both St Albans City centre and Thameslink station.
