This is a spacious and well-presented flat offering comfortable modern living in a convenient location. The property features a bright open-plan kitchen and living area with contemporary fitted units, integrated oven and hob, washing machine, fridge freezer, dining space and lounge seating area. The flat benefits from a double bedroom complete with wardrobe, chest of drawers and bed, alongside a large bathroom fitted with a shower cubicle, WC and wash basin. Neutral décor and good natural light throughout create a clean and welcoming feel.

Ideal for students or professionals seeking affordable, low-maintenance accommodation close to local amenities and transport links. The High Street location is perfect for the shops, bars and restaurants that Bangor has to offer, and there are numerous supermarkets just a short walk away. The University buildings and train station are also just a short walk away so the location really is fantastic. The rent includes gas, electricity & internet, making it easier for prospective tenants to account for this in their monthly budgeting.
