Guide Price - £850,000 Freehold

A rare opportunity to acquire a 4 bedroom farmhouse on 1.66 acres in a beautiful rural location on the Roseland peninsula.

The Property

This beautiful former farmhouse has been a much loved and secure family home for over 30 years and comes to the market now with vacant possession.

Whilst it has been in the custody of its current owners, the house has been rewired, had oil-fired central heating installed and extended with a superb oak frame extension to the kitchen. Numerous windows have been replaced with uPVC double glazing and two log burners installed.

There is undoubted scope for improvement yet many features remain such as a fabulous staircase ascending from a bright reception hall that boasts a lovely tiled floor.

The rooms and windows are correct in proportion for a property of this era, creating a bright and airy feel to the rooms, the majority of which have a southerly aspect across the gardens, paddock and surrounding unspoilt countryside.

The house sits prominently within its 1.66 acres of garden and paddock which includes a detached double garage, constructed in 2004, which includes a workroom and garden shed, complemented by ample parking facilities.
